

Product End-of-Life (EOL) Announcement

This notice serves as formal notification of Starview Technologies' decision to discontinue certain products due to changes in market demand and advancements in technology.

To facilitate an orderly transition during the End-of-Life (EOL) process, the following milestone is provided for reference:

EOL Milestone

Milestone	Definition
End-of-Life (EOL) Announcement	The date on which this document is publicly released, formally announcing the end of sale and end of life of the specified product(s).

 The final end-of-life date is subject to the continued availability of inventory. Starview Technologies reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to accelerate the end-of-life timeline without prior notice.*
